

Rules For Degree Of Comparison With Examples

What is the Degree of Comparison?

To describe, quantify, modify or identify nouns/pronouns, adjectives are used re used. Adjectives have their own degrees called degrees of adjectives or degrees of comparison that compare one thing/person to another.

Adjectives have three degrees of comparison -

- Positive degree of adjectives,
- Comparative degree of adjectives
- Superlative degree of adjectives

Degrees of Comparison examples:

Comparative degree - The cat runs faster than dogs

Superlative degree - The cat runs fastest of all animals.

Degree of Comparison Rules

Rule 1. When two items/person are compared, a comparative degree is used by putting 'er' to the adjective word in association with word 'than' or in some cases 'more' is used.

Comparative degree example:

- She is smarter than her sister.
- She is more smart than her sister

Similarly, when more than two things/persons are compared, superlative degree is used by putting 'est' to the adjective word or in some cases 'most' is used.

Superlative degree example:

- He is the strongest wrestler.
- He is the most handsome actor

Rule 2. 'More' is used when you qualities of a single thing/person are compared. Even if the first adjective is a single syllable word.

Degree of comparison example:

Incorrect - She is smarter than clever

Correct - She is more smart than clever

Rule 3. Do not use double comparative adjectives or superlative adjectives.

Example:

Incorrect - These mangoes are more delicious than those

Correct - These mangoes are delicious than those

Rule 4. Never use 'more or most' with adjectives that give absolute sense.

Degree of comparison example:

Incorrect - This track is more parallel to that one

Correct - This track is parallel and the other is not.

Rule 5. There are a few adjectives that are accompanied by 'to', like, senior, Junior, superior, inferior, preferable, prefer, elder. Do not use 'than' with these adjectives.

Degree of adjectives example:

Incorrect: I am elder than her

Correct : I am elder to her

Incorrect - This car brand is superior than that.

Correct - This card brand is superior to that.

Rule 6. When comparing two things, similarity should be there i.e. similar things should be compared.

Example:

Incorrect - This wall colour is more beautiful than the old one. (wall colour is compared with the wall)

Correct - This wall colour is more beautiful than that of the old one. (compare wall colour with wall colour)

Rule 7. When comparative degree is used in the superlative degree sense,

1. Use 'any other' when thing/person of the same group is compared.

Degree of comparison example:

Incorrect: Reena is smarter than any student of her class.

Correct: Reena is smarter than any other student of her class.

2. Use 'any' if comparison of things/person is outside the group.

Correct: Delhi is cleaner than any city in Bangladesh.

Rule 8. When in the same sentence two adjectives in different degrees of comparison are used, both should be complete in itself.

Incorrect- She is as good if not worse than her sister

Correct - She is as good as if not worse than her sister

Rule 9. To show whether the difference between the compared thing/person is small or big, we use quantifiers for comparative degree of adjective such as ( A bit, a little, a lot, far, much, a great deal, significantly, etc).

Example:

- My hostel is only marginally bigger than yours
- She is a little more popular than her sister in their school
- Australia is slightly smaller than Africa.

We don't use quantifiers with superlative degrees of adjectives but there are certain phrases commonly used with the superlative degrees of comparison.

Example:

- In metropolitan cities, metros are by far the cheapest mode of transportation.
- Sanskrit is one of the oldest languages in the world.
- Siddhivinayak is the second richest temple in India.

Rule. 10. While changing the degree of comparison for the irregular adjectives, the word completely changes instead of adding 'er' or 'est'.

Examples:

- She has little milk in the jar
- She has less milk than he has
- She has the least amount of milk
